

Dear Chairman Powell,

Please strengthen rules that forbid the monopoly of the airwaves by a few companies. At this time too few companies own and control what we hear and see. To loosen existing rulings will only increase the pervasive feelings that what we hear is being manipulated by the few and that overwhelmingly political views that we see and hear mirror that of those currently in control of our sad dear country.

Faith Campbell